World Vision

The PraiseMeisters will once again participate in the Choristers Guild Choir Festival on Sunday, March 15. This festival usually consists of 6-8 children's choirs in the area with a total of about 60 - 70 children's voices. This year Brian Hehn is the director for the concert. While working for The Hymn Society as the Director of The Center for Congregational Song, he is also adjunct professor of church music at Wingate University in Wingate, NC. If you desire to hear and to be blessed by a marvelous concert of children's choirs and also to encourage and to support our own children, please do mark March 15th on your calendar to attend the concert:

I Still Believe: A Memoir By Jeremy Camp

It was supposed to be their happily ever after. When Jeremy Camp lost his beloved wife Melissa just months after their wedding, the last thing he wanted to do was sing praise to God. But even as he struggled through unimaginable grief and fought to hold onto his faith, God had other plans: "Pick up your guitar. I have something for you to write." Jeremy obeyed, pouring out his heart, writing about the hope that God was still there, even in his deepest grief. The song he wrote that day, "I Still Believe," has gone on to inspire millions around the world. This is the story behind that song and the movie that it inspired.
